

NEW SERIES--NUMBER 123.

A "SUBSCRIBER" writes to ask if we were not loud in praise of Dr. Blackburn before his election. We were not as to his qualifications for Governor, but on the contrary quite the reverse, and if "Subscriber's" recollection was as long as his ears, he could bear us out in the assertion. Our files do at any rate. When the Dr. risked his life for the sake of the yellow fever sufferers, we were then loud in his praise because we imagined it the disinterested act of a philanthropist, but his subsequent act convinced us that he was actuated by ulterior motives, which were far from being philanthropic. In fact it came out so plain as to leave no room for doubt, that the Dr.'s "disinterestedness" was for the purpose of giving him a boom for Governor, which he worked for all it was worth. We were never of those who believed that a yellow fever doctor would necessarily make a good Governor and therefore before the Convention which nominated Blackburn, advocated Judge Lindsay as the proper man to succeed Gov. McCreary. The Doctor made one speech in Stanford, however, that we applauded, especially that portion in which he characterized as "hucksters" those alleged democrats who refuse to vote for a nominee unless he happens to be their choice in the first place and who always deserted their colors, when they should be found in solid phalanx fighting the enemy. "Are you not a moralist?" again asks "Subscriber." We again answer in the negative, especially if he means "one who prides himself or relies solely upon his external rectitude or virtues." We try to be a moral man and endeavor to inculcate in to the minds of our readers that excellent virtue, but at the same time we trust we are possessed of some of that charity which vaunteth not itself at the expense of others. To the last question, "Do you not think it is best for the country to elect men to office who can establish a clear record of sobriety?" we very sincerely reply in the affirmative, and we will not, if we know it, advocate any man for position who drinks to excess, though some men who drink are better qualified than others, who like the "Subscriber" pride themselves, no doubt on their abstemious habits. And now may we ask you just one question? Who the devil are you, and why did you not sign your name to your interrogatories like a man?

The advance sheets of the report of pardons, remissions of fines, &c., granted by the Governor and ordered to be printed by an act of the last Legislature, have at last appeared and show that in the first eighteen months of Blackburn's term, he granted 845 pardons alone, including 24 for murder and every other crime known in the category. An account of the remissions of fines, &c., also ordered to be reported seems to have been omitted, and as the Blackburns seem to be a law unto themselves, it is hardly probable that the order of the Legislature will be enforced.

In the Covington Commonwealth will examine the Louisville Commercial, of the 10th, it will see that the democrat, who figured upon the vote in the gubernatorial convention did give the names of the counties and the way they would instruct. So far as we can gather, the list is, with some exceptions, about as trustworthy a one as could be formulated.

The course of Gov. Blackburn, of Kentucky, and Gov. Stephens, of Georgia, suggests to the Louisville Democrat the idea that it would be a good thing to avoid old men henceforth in the selection of candidates for Governor. The morals of both these States have been damaged and crime encouraged by a too free use of the pardoning power.

The two or three democrats that live in Harlan county met last Monday and declared for Col. Jones for Governor, but as their action was informal and the county has only one vote in the State Convention, the other candidates are not alarmed. Harlan gave a republican majority in the last general election of over 600.

The Paducah Journal, just resurrected by the veteran editor and publisher, Col. H. M. McCarty, is a model both in matter and typography. We are pleased to place it on our exchange list and to welcome the Col. back into the ranks in which he is so well fitted to labor.

A CORRESPONDENT of the Anderson News signs himself "an ass," thereby showing that he is better acquainted with himself than the average scribbler will generally admit.

REVIEWING the results of the great flood, the Louisville Post says: "The flooded districts will, of course, be fertile for disease. The low ground that is flooded can not be drained in many parts of the city, and the water must be left to evaporate from the stagnant and filthy pools. All the houses that are left standing will be unfit for habitation for months, yet the people will move into them as soon as the water is off the floors. A malarial epidemic seems almost certain. If it can be confined to the districts that are flooded, the city will be fortunate; but there are grounds for serious fears that it may become general."

THE Covington Commonwealth speaks thus roughly of our much respected State Central Committee: "The Democrats of Kentucky have the most unscrupulous State Committee of which history gives any account. The majority of the members are small partisans, who consider it their privilege to make use of the position to advance the interests of one of the candidates for Governor by detracting from the claims and merits of other candidates. The conduct of a member of the Committee in actively electioneering against Col. Jones, has drawn out the animadversions of several Democratic newspapers."

THE trial of Craft is progressing without incident, save that an anonymous letter from a crank, warning the Marshal of the town to remove at once all women and children to places of safety, created some alarm among the soldiers and caused them to spend a sleepless night waiting for the arrival of the supposed mob of 500 angry citizens. But they didn't come, nor will they come. A fourth of the number of soldiers could easily protect the miserable prisoners.

THE floods are subsiding and the Ohio is falling at Cincinnati at the rate of one inch per hour and at 3 A. M. yesterday marked 59 feet 8 inches. At Louisville at the same time it was 41 feet 10 inches and falling. The damage has been millions of dollars but the worst is over. There is great suffering among the poor along the river and relief is earnestly asked for, to which the people all over the country are responding in a liberal manner.

THE Whipping-Post Law of Delaware provides that when a murderer is sent to the penitentiary for life he shall receive on entering the institution 39 lashes well laid on his naked back. It is a good law and has worked so well that the Legislature last week refused to repeal it. The average murderer would as lief be hung and be done with it.

THE House Appropriation Committee have found that the cost to the government, so far, of the Star Route trials has been $230,000 and yet it does not think it has exceeded a proper limit. We would like for curiosity's sake to know just what such a Committee would consider an excessive cost.

THE Signal Service Bureau is a rather costly affair and estimating its real value to the people, a quite too expensive luxury. The amount asked to be appropriated for it for the next fiscal year is $1,554,339, more than half a million more than the greatest total hitherto reached.

THE deepest Atlantic sounding heretofore reported was 3,862 fathoms but the steamer Blake, just arrived at the Brooklyn Navy Yard, beats that by 700 fathoms. This wonderful depth was found 100 miles N.W. of St. Thomas and the record was 4,561 fathoms, equal to 5.15 miles.

WE very cordially second the proposition of the Elizabethtown News that Kentucky demands a better jury system, better schools, better public roads, an abridgment of the pardoning power and a new constitution.

SOME playful fellow shot two or three times near a sentinel at Camp Grayson and came near scaring the boys to death. Search was made but the joker has not yet been found.

NOTES OF CURRENT EVENTS.

—The loss in Covington by the flood is estimated at $150,000.

—The estate of the late Marshall Jewell will probably exceed $500,000.

—There are 3,400,000 acres of United States land for sale in Mississippi.

—The New Orleans mint has coined by mistake 3,500 gold eagles light weight.

—A mine at Braidwood, Ill., caved in Friday night, and 72 persons perished.

—The business failures of the past week in the United States and Canada number 254.

—Arthur and Grant were pall-bearers at the funeral of Ex-Gov. Morgan, of New York.

—Six girls were dismissed from the Millersburg Female College for carrying notes to the boards.

—Five hundred residences have been overturned or destroyed by the flood at New Albany, Ind.

—The Tennessee democratic legislative caucus has agreed to a three per cent. rate on the State debt proper.

—The New York Herald subscribed $5,000 to a fund for the benefit of the sufferers by the flood in the Ohio.

—John Smith was sentenced to 18 years in the penitentiary by the circuit court at Lexington, for killing his wife.

—Between one hundred and one hundred and twenty-five tons of mail matter pass through the Chicago post-office daily.

—The lobbyists have grown so powerful and impudent that Senator Edmunds has offered a bill looking to their expulsion.

—Two large iron firms failed Saturday—John V. Ayres' Sons, Chicago, and the Fox River Iron Company, Greenburg, Wis.

—Mrs. Langtry gave a benefit performance for the relief of the flood sufferers at Cincinnati, which netted a large amount.

—A Cincinnati paper says it will take $800,000 to prevent distress by the flood sufferers of that city and but $111,125 has been raised.

—Bills have been introduced in Congress appropriating $600,000 for the relief of the sufferers by the floods of the Ohio and Mississippi rivers.

—One of the sad incidents of the flood at Aurora, Ind., was the funeral of a young lady, when the mourning friends followed the body in boats.

—The American contributions for the relief of the German sufferers that have been received by the President of the Reichstag amount to $196,000.

—Senator Ferry's chances for re-election are weakening. He received but eleven votes Saturday. Jay Hubbell confesses to have spent $700 to defeat him.

—Of the 730 murders recorded for the country last year, 212 were committed in the Southern States and 131 were committed in the State of New York alone.

—The Department of Agriculture estimates the cotton crop of 1932 at 6,800,000 bales. About seventeen per cent. of the crop remains in the producers' hands.

—The House fixed the salary of the Clerk of the Supreme Court at $6,000. Hitherto his fees have been princely in their munificence, amounting to $50,000.

—Five of the prisoners arrested at Alexandria, Egypt, for the murder of Prof. Palmer have been sentenced to death and the others to from three to fifteen years imprisonment.

—The army should be reduced to ten thousand men. West Point should be abolished, and in time of peace, army officers should be promoted from the ranks.—[N. Y. Sun.]

—The State Democratic Committee of Virginia, after an all day session, have decided to call a convention at Lynchburg on July the 25 for reorganization of the party in that State.

—The Arkansas Legislature has passed a bill prohibiting the sale of liquor within three miles of any church or school-house, upon a petition of the adult inhabitants of the neighborhood.

—Jay Gould subscribed $1,000 for the relief of sufferers in the Ohio valley. J. W. Garrett $2,000, George W. Childs, of Philadelphia, $1,000, and Drexell Morgan & Co., of New York, $5,000.

—The fact that 300 persons lost their lives and more than 1,000 were wounded in the coal mines of Pennsylvania last year, is causing the Legislature of that State to take steps to protect the lives of the miners.

—An electrolyte plate for printing Confederate ten-cent postage stamps was found at Atlanta Saturday, and a number of impressions printed as relics. One thousand dollars was offered the finder for his treasure.

—The building of the new court-house at Lexington has been let to W. E. Bush, of that city, for $96,000 and the work of tearing down the old eye-sore will begin at once. The new building is to be of pressed brick with stone finish and stone front.

—There is a bill before the New York Legislature for the State to buy the Niagara Falls property and throw the sublime prospect open to the world. At present it is fenced in by shacks and a round sum charged travelers for the privilege of seeing it.

—The personal epithets used by the young Adjutant General, Blackburn, have merited the rebuke of the Kentucky Press with a unanimity that must have been somewhat startling even to a brilliant and pugnacious young person ornamented with a tough facial epidermis.—[Mt. Sterling Democrat.]

—The amount of damage done by the floods in Louisville, carefully compiled by the Courier-Journal representative, reaches $367,500. The approximation embraces the most important losses, and it vouches for its general correctness. The seven miles from the "Point" to Portland was fully covered.

—The present River and Harbor Bill calls for an appropriation of $8,450,000. The committee has thrown out the bays, creeks and canals, which figured so largely last year. The Cumberland river gets $22,000; the Tennessee $200,000; Kentucky river $75,000; Ohio river $300,000. It is possible that the bill will fall to pieces.

—Montfort Redell, one of the star route thieves on trial at Washington, Saturday withdrew his plea of not guilty, pleaded guilty, threw himself on the mercy of the court, and took the stand "to give the whole thing away." Redell was Dorsey's secretary and as he took an active part in manipulating the steals, he can, of course, tell a great deal that will be mighty interesting reading.

—The annual report of the Pennsylvania Hospital for the Insane, shows the causes of insanity in 8,073 persons under care of the institution since 1841. From this record it appears that there is most to be avoided ill health as a very fruitful source of insanity. Next to this comes intemperance. Loss of property stands next, the fear of it. It is strange, then, to see that domestic difficulties come next, with disappointed affections following, these two standing fourth and fifth, in the proportion of 101 from disappointed affections to 173 from domestic difficulties. One hundred and one persons actually went crazy because they could not occupy relations which set crazy one hundred and seventy-three.

—THE DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE.

Fixes March 31st for a Primary Election.

The Democratic Committee met in Stanford, pursuant to a call, Saturday, Feb. 17, and after discussion decided that the claims of the Legislative candidates could better be determined by primary election, which was fixed for Saturday, March 31st, to be conducted in manner and form as follows:

The election shall be held in the usual voting places of the various precincts, by the persons named below; the vote shall be given by ballot, to be taken between the hours of 8 A. M. and 5 P. M., and none but those who voted the democratic ticket at the last general election will be allowed to vote, except they were prevented by absence or sickness and are known by the judges to be good democrats.

When the polls are closed and the count made, the officers of the various voting places shall certify the number of votes that each candidate received, and forward a statement by Monday, April 23, if possible, to the Chairman of the Committee, who shall, in the presence of the Secretary or any other of the Committee who care to be present, open such returns, and, after ascertaining which of the candidates has received the highest number of votes, declare him nominee of the party.

The following gentlemen are appointed to hold said primary election: At Crab Orchard, John Buchanan, J. G. Moore and Otis Newland; Walnut Flat, Tim W. Higgins, T. C. Coffey, J. H. Tucker; Stanford, Judge John M. Phillips, Thos. Richards, J. E. Lynn; Turnersville, J. D. Swope, Jno. Bailey, B. G. Gover; Hustonville, F. M. Yowell, Smith Powell, Andy Cowan; Highland, John Young, George Bastin, Green Wall; Wayneburg, Frank Howard, Ben Warner, J. L. Bull.

In the absence of one of the persons named the other two at a precinct can fill the vacancy, and in case none of them are present, the County Committee for that precinct shall appoint a new set of officers.

The vote of the two Stanford precincts will be taken together at the Court House, the other precincts will be held as the regular election. W. G. WELCH, Chm.

W. P. WALTON, Sec.

An Additional Call on T. A. Ekin.

We the undersigned having noticed a call on you to become a candidate for State Senator, and feeling that we also should be heard, and seeing that you are not determined, would urgently solicit you to become a candidate, pledging to you our hearty support:

Joseph Simpson, J. P. Sandifer, J. T. Paterson, W. B. Mason, Robt. B. West, W. Burnside, W. O. Sweeney, W. O. Rigney, J. A. Burnside, R. Boyle, J. J. Walker, C. J. Doty.

LANCASTER.

—The Citizens National Bank will be ready to go to work by next Monday, County Court day.

—Mr. H. A. B. Marksbury has sold this year about $700 worth of Skunk skins, and he says that it hasn't been a good year for Skunks either.

—The few warm days last week made the grass and small grain shoot up a little. With a favorable spring we will probably have an average wheat crop.

—Mr. James Hemphill is having the store-room in which he has been doing business remodelled. He will open up with a new stock of goods in a short time.

—A squad of 21 convicts passed down on Friday morning's train en route for Roundtown, where they will be worked on the K. C. R. R. extension. They seemed to be very comfortably provided for.

—A sale of the personal property of Jefferson Dunn, dec'd., was had at his late home near Bryantville, last Thursday.

The stock sold brought an unusually good price, and other personally sold well.

—Mr. W. O. Sweeney has opened up a clothing, gent's furnishing goods, boot and shoe store at the old stand of J. G. Sweeney & Son. Mr. W. O. Rigney will continue in the same business at the old stand of Rigney & Sweeney.

—The Methodist Church, South, at this place, held their regular Quarterly Meeting last Saturday. The Rev. J. Rand, Presiding Elder of the Danville District conducted the services. He also preached to-night (Monday), and probably longer.

—The question of taxing the turpikes of this county, was tried before Judge Walker, Saturday, who decided that they should be taxed according to a certain valuation per mile and not according to the value of the stock. The various companies didn't want to be taxed at all in any manner, but they will have to come to time unless a higher tribunal reverses the decision of Judge Walker.

—Judge M. H. Owsley came home Saturday. He will open his Court at Danville, Tuesday. The Judge's chances of being the next Governor of Kentucky are growing more flattering as the time for the Convention at Louisville draws nearer.

—Jones' little game of having a few men in several counties to declare the counties for him didn't bluff worth a cent. Jones has been feasting on the idea of wearing gubernatorial honors, for several years, if actions indicate any thing. It will really be too utterly too bad for the poor fellow to be beaten.

—Mr. and Mrs. James C. Bryant spent several days the latter part of last week with Mrs. Judge Owsley. They are now in the Bryantville neighborhood. Jim hasn't determined positively where he will locate in business. Judge M. J. Durham, of Danville, was in town Saturday, looking after the interest of the Lexington, Nicholasville and Danville Turnpike Road Company. Judge George Denny, Jr., will go to Nicholasville Tuesday to assist in the defense of Geo. Letcher. R. H. Tomlinson was in Washington county the latter part of last week on legal business.

—In passing through the flouring mills of George Denny, Sr., & Co., a few days since, we were surprised at the great quantity of machinery it contained. All of the most improved machinery for making every grade of flour, including the patent process flour has been put in and their mills are now second to none in the State. They are now shipping their patent process flour to almost every town in Central Kentucky.

The citizens of this community should freely patronize this company so as to encourage other men who have money to invest in manufactures in our midst. There is nothing that builds up a small town more rapidly than manufacturing and mechanical industries.

Worthy of Praise.

As a rule we do not recommend Patent Medicines, but when we know of one that really is a public benefactor, and does positively cure, then we consider it our duty to impart that information to all. Electric Bitters are truly a most valuable medicine, and will surely cure Rheumatism, Fever and Ague, Stomach, Liver and Kidney Complaints, even where all other remedies fail. We know whereof we speak, and can freely recommend them to all.—[Exchange.—Sold at fifty cents a bottle, by Penny & McAlister.

A Texas Farm For Sale!

I will sell or exchange my Farm in Texas for lands in Garrard, Madison, Lincoln or Boyle counties. This farm is situated in Tarrant county, Texas, about 12 or 14 miles South of the city of Fort Worth and about same distance North of the City of Cleburne, in Johnson county. Contains 320 Acres of fine land, all under fence, with a good barn upon it and good water on place. It is first-rate farming land and is especially well located for raising cattle, being on a high plateau between two never failing streams of water. It is about one mile East of the surveyed route of the Fort Worth & Rio Grande R. R., which will be completed in a short time, and about 3 miles West of the U. C. & Santa Fe R. R. now in operation from Ft. Worth to Galveston. This farm is in the great cotton and wheat raising section of Northern Texas and very desirable for any one wanting to farm or raise cattle. Also have on the place a small bunch of short horn Heifers with calf and one fine Short Horn Bull, 3 years old this spring; also farming implements, that I will trade with the place.

—Mr. DENNIS A. SHANAHAN, of Covington, Va., at present a contractor on the K. C. R. R., was in Stanford Saturday. From a little boy, when we saw him last, he has grown into a handsome man, and developed a business capacity which is fast securing him a fortune.

LOCAL MATTERS.

NICE oranges at H. C. Bright's.

CLAVIER and Timothy seed at A. Owsley & Son's.

HOWORTH'S HIBERNICA at Opera House, Stanford, March 1.

THE postoffice at Disappointment, Clay county, has been discontinued.

FOR SALE.—Three handsome residences. Will sell very cheap. Stanford, Dec. 23, '82. W. Craig.

FARMERS and others having grain sacks belonging to Geo. D. Wearen will confer a great favor by promptly returning them.

FARM of 80 acres, in grass, lying on Lancaster pike, 2 miles from town, for sale or rent and horse and buggy for sale. B. G. Alford.

A COLLECTION was taken up at the Presbyterian Church Sunday night for the benefit of the flood sufferers in Louisville and $28.50 was realized.

CANNED GOODS.—We have them, over two hundred cases bought before the advance. We are selling at small margin by dozen or case. H. C. Bright.

THE Legislative candidates have six weeks to convince the dear people of their fitness. The primary election to settle their claims occurs Saturday, March 31st.

A NEGRO MAN whose name, we could not learn, fell from the bridge over Cumberland River, near Williamsburg, and was drowned Saturday. His body was recovered.

A HANDSOME line of spring hats just received at J. W. Hayden's. He will close out at greatly reduced figures all the spring and white goods carried over from last season.

THE "Duplex Crown" is the most wonderful Sewing Machine ever invented. Can be changed instantly to make either chain or lock stitch. Just out from Bruce, Warren & Co's.

MR. GEORGE D. WEAREN is still in the field and will keep a full line of all kinds of agricultural implements this year than ever. He is a liberal dealer. Read his "ad" in this issue and communicate with him.

MR. SOC. OWENS, of the Clemens House, Danville, desires to apologize to some of his patrons for not furnishing them with dinner as promptly as he would like to have done. He was crowded to overflowing was the reason. He promises that it shall not happen again.

THE man who pays the cash can get new goods for less money at the New Family Grocery of S. S. Myers, than ever before in Stanford. His stock is new and fresh and his prices low, and he is determined by sticking to the cash system to always keep them low. Call on him to-morrow.

A FIGHT.—The report comes from Crab Orchard that George Moore and Will Carson engaged in a combat Saturday night, in which it is said that Carson was terribly punished, appearing after the battle as if a freight train had passed over him. Moore must have thought he had injured him seriously, as we are told he left by the first train yesterday.

NEW CASH STORE.—S. S. Myers will open to-morrow in the store-room lately occupied as the postoffice, a complete stock of groceries, which he will sell only for cash. His prices will be such as will make it a decided object for the public to deal with him and as he proposes to lose nothing by bad debts, to be made out of those who pay, he will sell at the smallest possible profit. Money saved is money made and you can make it by buying from S. S. Myers.

A NICE sorghum molasses made by W. F. Ramsey at H. C. Bright's.

LITTLE PERSONAL.—A nine-pound girl arrived at Mr. A. A. Warren's Sunday.

WASH TUTTLE, the slayer of Wild Bill Catron, was acquitted at Somerset by the examining court.

DALE WOLFORD, of Casey, formerly employed here, spent ten days in the Danville work-house for carrying weapons concealed.

AFTER a couple of bright and warm days, the weather turned suddenly cold Saturday. A sleeting rain fell all day and at night an inch of the beautiful was spread over the earth.

MR. H. C. RUPLEY, our wide-awake Merchant Tailor, has already opened out a very handsome line of spring suitings and pants patterns and will continue to receive new goods right along. Call on him and get first choice of his splendid stock. He keeps nothing but the best.

STANFORD and Hustonville are at last within speaking communication, or will be after to day, when the instruments will be adjusted. Billy Williams, disappointed by the men who had agreed to put the wire up, pulled off his coat and went to work himself and at 7 P. M. Friday he was seen crawling through a window of the INTERIOR JOURNAL building with the wire in his hand. He is a pusher and don't you forget it.

GOING TO ENGLAND.—Rev. George O. Barnes, his wife, Miss Maria, Willie and Georgia will embark in the Steamer Pavonia to-morrow for London, England, a gentleman, having offered to pay all expenses. This Mr. Barnes interpreted as a message from the Lord, that he should go thither and he leaves his home and country to spread his gospel and save sinners till the Lord comes, which he thinks will be in a few years, at most. His many friends here will deeply regret that his call should be in that direction, but they will not cease to pray that it will be for the best and that great results may be achieved. Our readers will be glad to know that he has kindly promised to continue his letters to the INTERIOR JOURNAL, which will be doubly interesting since his superior powers of description will be given greater scope on which to dilate.

DEATHS.

—Mr. William Richardson, an old and respected citizen of the Preachersville neighborhood, died Friday of pneumonia. He was 75 years of age.

—Judge E. J. Bullock, a native of Boyle county, died at his home in Columbus, Ky. a few days ago, aged 74 years. During his life he was Circuit Judge, Legislator, &c.

—Mr. E. D. Pendleton, after an illness of several weeks, died Saturday, aged 48. He was an honest, hard-working man and was well thought of by all who knew him. He leaves three children; Mrs. Geo. Perigo, Mrs. John Newland and James Pendleton.

RELIGIOUS.

—Rev. H. Allen Tupper is conducting a protracted meeting at Flemingsburg, with his usual success.

—In the fifty-two theological seminaries in the United States 2,000 young men are trained by 200 instructors.

—The Presbyterian church at Leadville, Col., has 200 members, who last year raised over $9,000 for congregational and benevolent causes.

—Pete Wilgar is the oldest Sunday-school superintendent yet heard from. He is 85 and has been superintendent of the same school at Spring Mills, Pa., since 1828.

—The debate between Revs. Sweeney and Dittler at Horse Cave created little or no interest, the papers of the region almost entirely ignoring it. The fact is the people are getting tired of such business. The salvation of souls is more important, they think, than discussing whether "baptists" means to dip or to sprinkle.

LAND, STOCK AND CROP.

—The proprietors of the Lincoln Mills want to buy wheat and corn.

—J. S. Owsley bought 25 long yearlings in Danville yesterday at $4 cents.

—George D. Wearen bought of B. F. Coomer 40 barrels corn, delivered, at $2.

—A. W. Carpenter sold to Wyatt Sandridge 27 hogs, averaging 230 lbs., at 6 cts.

—FOR SALE, CHEAP.—A Good 3-year-old Jack. Apply to R. H. Crow, Stanford.

—Jas. W. Gudel bought of J. L. Bond 52 ewes at $5.00 per head.—[Anderson News.]

—I have 300 shoats of fodder for sale to be fed on the premises. W. H. Hays, Stanford.

—Ten or twelve work mules, 15 to 17 hands high, for sale by J. F. & B. G. Gover, Stanford.

—J. M. McRoberts sold the Alderney cow advertised in this paper for $70 to E. P. Woods.

—G. R. Pope bought of E. T. Young a three-year-old mule for $116 and of J. V. Powell, one of same age for $115.

—McPike & Johnson, large dealers in mules in St. Louis are $45,000 behind in their accounts and have made an assignment.

—The largest mule sale this season in Madison was that of Wm. Arnold to L. W. Hudson & Co., 78 tip-top animals at $164 per head.—[Register.]

—F. D. Albright arrived from Tennessee Friday with 21 cows and steers which cost $16 to $37.50 and 7 mule colts and yearlings which cost $40 to $75. They are for sale at his farm.

—D. N. Previtt bought 17 head of plain cattle, averaging about 850 lbs., at $3.25 per cwt. Wakefield & Farris sold a pair of fancy 4-year-old mare mules to J. O. Evans for $350.—[Advocate.]

—At a sale in Fayette, corn brought $2.03 per barrel, cash; short yearling cattle $27; long yearlings $40; milk cows $50 to $65; broad ewes $18 to $25; shoats $5 to $8; pig per head; same 75 to 100 lbs., $3; oats estimate $12 per ton.

—The Bowling Green Gazette reports sales of 25 hogs for April delivery at 5 1/2 cts; 6 4-year-old mare mules 15 1/2 to 16 hands; a car load of fat 14 1/2 hand three to four year old mules at $105; 15 do. 14 to 16 hands at $135; a lot of 750 lb. steers at $19, and 10 feeders of 1,200 lbs. at $61.

—When Cincinnati packed more hogs than any city in the Union, Kansas City was merely a small spot on the map, if indeed it had been christened. Now the hog figures for that place are 410,000 for '82-'83, against 418,000 in Cincinnati.

—DANVILLE COURT.—Capt. H. T. Bush reports a large crowd at County Court yesterday and some 300 cattle, fair to common grade. The demand was good; best brought $4; common and scrub 3 1/2 to 4 1/2; nearly all sold. Some aged mules brought $75 to $150 per head. Plug horses sold at $50 to $100; 1 bunch of ewes and lambs sold at $5.60 per head.

—Mr. J. H. Fish writing from Davilla, Texas, says: We are having a very hard winter, killing thousands of head of stock, especially sheep. I have lost over 500 lambs and old sheep; freezing to death; food and shelter fail to save them. The mercury has been as low as 10° below zero. The day before the last storm was very pleasant to one in shirt sleeves. One person, a negro, who lived in my vicinity, froze to death while returning home from town.

LINCOLN COUNTY.

Near McCormack's Church.

—A bouncing big boy at Mr. Montgomery Lytle's.

—Mrs. M. A. Goode who has been quite sick, is some better, we hear.

—Farmers are getting quite restless, and are anxious to get at their work, only a few days have been suitable for plowing so far.

—There is a great deal of sickness among the colored people; when we consider how thin they are it is only a wonder there is not more.

—The new church at Turnersville is about completed at last, and we understand will be dedicated some time in March. This building is quite an ornament and a credit to Turnersville.

—Mr. W. Bailey returned to his home at Turnersville, last week. Mr. B. has been South for some time. Mr. Sam Campbell, from Missouri, who has been on a visit to the "old folk at home," has returned to his family, accompanied by his father, Mr. George Campbell, who went there to see the country with a view of locating.

Mr. Will McCormack and son have got home from Tennessee, with two car loads of cattle, and three barrels of Sorghum molasses, yum, yum!

Crab Orchard.

—During last week Mrs. W. F. Kennedy had a select gathering in her commodious parlors and a more enjoyable evening is but seldom given the wayfarer. Her beautiful and accomplished daughters presided with graceful ease and dignity, winning the love of the gentlemen and praises of the other ladies.

—In speaking of our schools in your issue of last Friday, I failed to mention one of the most successful and popular teachers of the village. It was not intentional on my part, for the lady thus neglected, Miss Alice McClure, is a teacher of whom any community might justly feel proud. She is conducting a flourishing school and needs no encomiums from accidental scribblers to guarantee success. I know Miss Alice will not accuse me of intentional discourtesy.

—Our new marshal, W. T. Saunders, is a model officer. While quiet and gentlemanly in his bearing, the known firmness of the man holds the disorderly elements in absolute subjection, and that too without apparent effort upon his part. Mr. Saunders has given bond for the faithful discharge of the duties of his office, that would be received without a moment's hesitation from the sheriff of the county, and I take pleasure in giving him a position of unqualified endorsement.

—Col. Estill, of Richmond, uncle of Mrs. James Rice, spent several days with us the first of the week. He was greatly pleased with Crab Orchard and being a magnificent type of the Kentucky gentleman, we trust he may find it convenient to visit us often. Mr. Howard Rice, of Garrard county, is with us and unhesitatingly acknowledges that our young ladies are the fairest of all the earth. Howard is a youth of very accurate judgment. E. W. Jones has embarked in the sheep trade and although the last great storm cost him the third part of his flock, his enthusiasm is not at all abated. R. H. Bronaugh considers the election of L. M. Lasley a fore-gone conclusion. Mr. Fox says the Crow perches too high. Miss Ada Reese, of Jacksonville, Ill., is visiting the family of Mr. R. Carson. It is seldom one looks upon a more beautiful woman than Miss Ada. Mr. Wm. James still gives personal attention to his interests here. Being a clever and most enterprising young man, we wish him the fullest success. Mr. Bryant Hobbs, of Preachersville, has again been around looking after his interests and to his great surprise, found the sweet little darling temporarily absent. Judge Stephen Burch has come again and as usual his presence caused the village "to clap her hands with joy." May his shadow never grow less, is the universal prayer here.

BOYLE COUNTY.

Danville.

—D. H. Yeiser returned from Atlanta on Thursday, where he had taken a small lot of mules. He sold 24 head of 14 1/2-hand mules at $107.50 each. He reports the market dull and weather disagreeable.

—G. W. Vermillion, who lives on Dr. W. R. Evans' farm, came to town on Friday and posted a stray Alderney cow that he had taken up. The animal was fawn-colored, dark neck and head, with white on the belly and sides and about 10 years old.

—Miss Powers, the manager of the W. U. Telegraph Co. here, has been instructed to send free of charge all messages from authorized relief committees or associations, offering relief to sufferers of the flood. This does not include the transmission of money as the Company is not now prepared for such transmissions.

—Jack Walters, a prisoner in the work-house on a charge of carrying concealed weapons, yesterday confessed to poisoning two fine horses belonging to Mr. L. T. Henshiff, of Jessamine county. He says he had an accomplice whom he named. A reward of $1,000 signed by thirty-nine substantial citizens, has been offered for the arrest and conviction of the poisoners.

—The trial of J. Bell Caldwell at Junction City, Friday, for mayhem, resulted in his being held for further trial. Bell and Charles Jones, life long friends, got too much bug-juice aboard and became involved in a fight. Bell was knocked down and Charles received an ugly cut on the side of his head and a split ear. The men are both ashamed of what occurred and have made up their quarrel, Jones being one of Caldwell's bondsmen.

—When the hour for opening Circuit arrived this morning, it was announced that Judge Owsley could not be here until to-morrow. An election was then held and Hon. M. J. Durham elected special judge. The grand jury was composed of the following named gentlemen and was charged by Commonwealth's Attorney, R. C. Warren: J. A. Stangher, Wm. Duke, John Hunsung, J. E. Lee, Nick McDowell, Benj. Bolling, J. E. Carter, T. F. Baker, Morton Crow, C. T. Armstrong, Harvey Mitchell, Preston Ruines, Wm. Wade, W. M. Skomp, Evan Bolling, W. T. Wood.

—Miss Mattie Bell, of Shelbyville, is visiting the family of Col. James A. Fisher. Miss Lymington is visiting Mrs. R. P. Jacobs. Miss Laura Hiter is visiting Miss Alice McClorty. Miss Hortense Phillips, of Sedalia, Mo., and Miss Mary Payne, of Elizabethtown, will be here during the week; the former will be the guest of Miss Sue Fible, the latter of the family of Mr. Geo. Welsh, Jr. Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Cecil entertained a few gentlemen friends on Thursday evening. Those present were Messrs. Fayette Dunlap, S. R. Cheek, Richard Dunlap, Andrew Whitley, R. G. Evans, R. T. Quisenberry and C. R. Anderson. Mr. and Mrs. Granville Cecil were also present.

—Rev. P. T. Hale, the new pastor of the Baptist Church, must be one of the old-fashioned kind of Christians, for he has made it known that the gospel he preaches is free to all. He caused to be distributed Saturday morning cards inscribed as follows: "The truth is love." "You are cordially invited to attend Danville Baptist Church, Broadway, bet. 3d and 4th, every Sunday morning and evening. P. T. Hale, pastor. Come with us and we will do your good." On the reverse side is, "Turn ye, turn ye, from your evil ways; for why will ye die? Sinner, are ye saved? Are you prepared to die? Have you been true to your conscience? How long do you intend to put off your return to God? Is it safe for you to delay longer? Then come to Christ at once. Why not now? Come. Neglect not the assembling of yourselves together. Christians, do you pray? Are you enjoying religion? Are you leading any one to Christ? Are you setting a proper example before the world? Is your life a blessing to your church? God is your father; Jesus your friend. Serve Him now. Where your treasure is, there will your heart be also." Wouldn't a poor sinner, who happened to be a poor man, or woman, be sure to feel that there was more honesty in the professions of religionists who send out such invitations as the above, than in those of the close corporation Christians, who welcome none but rich and influential members into the fold, and who from their seats in the synagogue, freeze impetuous sinners into icicles, by glances from their heaven-lit (?) eyes the moment they enter the door of the fashionable sanctuary?

MT. VERNON DEPARTMENT.

Sam. M. Burdett, Editor.

—Two cars in freight train No. 26 jumped the track near the "big fill," Sunday evening, delaying the train several hours.

—Mr. A. R. Thornton, of Paris, bought from Mr. J. C. P. Myers, 35 acres of land about a half a mile from this place, at $10 cash per acre.

—James Mize, for shooting Dud McClure, was tried Saturday and held in $400 bail to Circuit Court. In default of bail he went to jail.

—Mr. J. E. Vowels, the popular proprietor of the Variety Store, is happy. On the 16th, his wife presented him with a fine girl. He was already the father of four bouncing boys.

—It is said that Miss Lizzie B. Hopper, of Lancaster, will in a few days open a select school in this place. She has the reputation of being an excellent teacher and deserves a hearty support from our people.

—Died at his father's residence in this county, on Friday the 16th inst., Robert Chestnut, son of W. J. Chestnut. He was a promising young man and his sudden demise is a sad blow to his relatives and friends.

—Mr. Wm. H. Conn, of Garrard county, was here Saturday looking for traces of a mare stolen from him on the night of the 8th. Elsewhere in this paper he offers a reward of $50 for the return of this mare and the arrest of the thief. See advertisement.

—PERSONAL.—Misses Lizzie and Nannie Hopper, of Lancaster, paid a short visit to this place. Capt. Tom Jim Ballard, of Goodland, was in town yesterday. Mr. Bennett H. Joplin, who has been for some time in Southern Kentucky in the interest of the Central Publishing Co., has returned to his home in this place. Mr. A. R. Thornton, of Paris, Ky., is a guest of the Joplin House.

"PRAISE THE LORD."

266 SCHENCKENBORN ST., BROOKLYN, N. Y. Feb. 13, 1883.

Dear Interior:—Saturday afternoon after the 3 o'clock service, a gentleman whom I had never seen three weeks before, stepped into the little room of music hall, when I was donning my Ulster and overcoat, and asked a few moments conversation. I sat down with him on the sofa, and this was what passed, substantially, and also nearly verbatim. "Do you want to go to England, Bro. Barnes?" "I do, sir; I am, and have been, trusting the LORD to send me there, when the time comes." "Well, sir; I shall be happy to send you there, if you will allow me, I cannot promise beyond the present; but I have a thousand dollars at your disposal, which I give to the LORD, gladly, through you. You have my heartiest good wishes and prayers, and although you will, doubtless, be tried, I believe they will receive you in the old country, after they get at your teaching. God bless you." And my new friend made his exit without more ado, leaving me in quite a state of excitement, and just able to gasp, "Praise the LORD." For here was the coveted opportunity, sooner than I had dreamed of and brought about in such a way that I could not fail to see the hand of the LORD in it, and the dear, familiar, "Exceeding abundantly above what you can ask or think," that has so often been "my song in the house of my pilgrimages."

So on the strength of this gift from the LORD'S own hand, I took passage on steamers Pavia, of the Concord line, for self and family; sending for Willie, in Tennessee, by the same mail. We sail on the 21st inst. So that when your good readers peruse these lines we shall be ready to embark. It is a heavenly coincidence that we leave America the last day of our 6th year, of service, in this Evangel, and when we open our eyes upon the broad Atlantic type of the boundless, faithless love of Him who leads us gently by the hand, it will be on the morning of Feb. 22nd, the day our great "Pater patrius" was born, the day Marie and I began work together; the day the Pink Cottage Faith Cure was born; and now the day, when we go out to a land which the LORD promises to "show us," as He did one of old, in whose footsteps we wish to tread, and of whom it is written, "he went out not knowing whither he went;" only he will know, what all may know, his Guide and Leader. And surely that is enough. It shall be for me at any rate. "My heart is fixed, trusting in the LORD."

One beautiful circumstance I will add for the help of those, who, like Thomas, wish to see the very nail prints before they credit anything from the LORD, though credulous enough in other things. To others who have learned to know and trust our God it will be a joy to say, in reading it, it is just like HIM. The very day, perhaps the very hour, when that gift was bestowed in Music Hall, my friend's confidential clerk made an investment, that he thought his employer would have made, had he been at his counting room, which by Monday morning, netted an even profit of exactly $1,000 by a rise in the market value of, whatever it was. PRAISE THE LORD. And if there are those who do not link the two things together, then would "they not be persuaded though one rose from the dead?"

We hope to land in Liverpool next Saturday week, and go straight to London, unless the dear LORD should otherwise direct. We shall have every comfort at sea, known to the sea-going public, on the superb steamer of the well known Cunard line, and we have secured first-class berths at just half the rates that obtain after April 1st when every thing is jammed by the tourists. All the outgoing steamers for April, May and June are pretty well filled up already, as to the choice berths. We get across for $60 per capita, and have the pick of state-rooms. The same berths bring $120 at a later date. Wait us across with your prayers, dear ones, who have so long borne up upon your hearts of love. Jesus bless you—every one.

I will now give the outcome of the Christmas appeal to Kentucky, so that all may be transparently known, and "every mouth be stopped," that might otherwise speak only things. I know well, the value of being perfectly outspoken in these matters, and that is what I propose being now and ever. The entire sum received footed up $965.20. This in sums as follows from the following places:

Clark County.....$ 43.50
Garrard.....81.50
Louisville.....71.00
Woodford.....34.00
Cincinnati.....2.00
Lincoln.....82.00
Bowling Green.....45.00
Danville.....76.00
Catsburg.....10.00
Rockcastle.....22.00
Anderson.....30.00
Bell.....10.00
Frankfort.....2.00
Perry.....13.00
Lexington.....73.00
Harian.....19.00
Lee.....5.00
Marion.....29.00
Paintsville.....5.00
Bardonia.....10.00
Chico.....25.00
Pulaski.....31.00
Dayton.....51.00
Richmond.....100.00
Laurel.....7.00
Casey.....10.00
Total.....$965.20

These gifts came from less than 200 persons, and we have expended about $600 of the amount already. Including the $1,000 after passage is paid, we have about $900 to start to England with. But we have no fears about support. I want the dear donors of the Christmas gift to know that a part of their bounty will go to help the establishment of the pure gospel of love in the "light little island" that rules the world. I am sure I need not know it as much in America. Happy those who have a hand in spreading the good news in these "last days."

My dear Bro. Greenwood, of the Identity Church will edit an edition of my sermons if he can find a publisher. I leave them as my legacy of love to my native land. If I read Scripture aright we shall not have gone over the cities of Israel till the Son of Man is come. Ever in Jesus. GEO. O. BARNES.

FIRE INSURANCE AGENCY.

Because your house, or your goods, or your live stock, or your other property have not been burnt or injured by fire or lightning, is no guaranty that they cannot be. Don't you think, then, that it would be prudent to secure indemnity in case such loss or damage should occur? I offer you this at the lowest rates obtainable in any first-class insurance company. I represent seven such companies and you may take your choice. JNO. H. PHILIPS.
